Saint of the Week

St. Augustine of Hippo
Feast Day: August 28

St. Augustine of Hippo is the patron of brewers because of his conversion from a former life of loose living. This famous son of St. Monica was born in Africa and spent many years of his life in wicked living and in false beliefs. Through the prayers of his holy mother and the marvelous preaching of St. Ambrose, Augustine finally became convinced that Christianity was the one true religion. He was baptized, became a priest, a bishop, a famous Catholic writer, Founder of religious priests, and one of the greatest saints that ever lived. St. Augustine overcame strong heresies, practiced great poverty and supported the poor, preached very often and prayed with great fervor right up until his death. "Too late have I loved You!" he once cried to God, but with his holy life he made up for the sins he committed before his conversion.

PARISH FREE LIBRARY

For many people, summer is a time for vacation, which may include relaxing with a good book. Maybe this is a good time to consider some of the novels that are being featured at Assumption Church's FREE LIBRARY. Among a variety of authors are Graham Greene and Joseph Girzone, both having multiple novels to choose from. Come and visit our display at the main entrance of Assumption Church.

Nigerian Missions Speakers This Weekend

The Daughters of the Holy Spirit greet you and thank you for welcoming us to your parish for the 2019 Mission Appeal in the Diocese of Worcester. In anticipation of that appeal, allow us to introduce ourselves. The Congregation of the Daughters of the Holy Spirit is an international Religious Congregation of women founded in 1706 in Brittany, France. Over the course of 300+ years, our missionary outreach has expanded over 5 continents, namely, Africa, Asia, Europe, South America, and North America. Our mission appeal this year focuses on Africa, and in particular, the needs of our Nigerian Mission. The Daughters of the Holy Spirit began the Nigerian Mission in 1964 in response to the Church's appeal for missionaries to Africa. Today, 61 Professed Nigerian Daughters of the Holy Spirit carry on this mission within 4 Dioceses in the Western part of Nigeria. As from our early beginnings, the involvement of our Sisters focuses strongly on quality education of children and youth who, in Nigeria, make up over 50% of its immense population, some 200,250,000 people. We manage multiple schools, both on primary and secondary levels, a hospital, clinics, a rehabilitation center for the physically and mentally challenged, reaching out to surrounding villages. Adult literacy programs are on the rise, especially among women. Visiting the sick and poor in their homes, including a community of lepers shapes our pastoral outreach. In all local parishes and outstations, catechesis and children's liturgy are a priority. I look forward to sharing more with you about our mission, and in particular, on a few concrete projects in the making. In anticipation of meeting you on the weekend of August 24th-25th, we remain ever grateful for your missionary sensitivities. May the Spirit of God bring you deep joy and peace.
